Are you considering a career in education, working with young people?

This role provides excellent opportunities to gain experience of working in school as a pre-requisite for other careers in education or working with young people. It will be a busy role requiring a patient, calm and caring manner, and the ability to deal with a range of situations.

You will have the chance to support students individually and in small groups, joining a team of committed people enabling youngsters to achieve beyond their dreams.

Good organisational skills are required, as is the ability to work both as a team member and independently, using your initiative. Empathy with students is essential, balanced with the overall aim of student independence in both learning and life skills. Experience with secondary school aged students would be an advantage but is not a prerequisite.

Usual hours are 8.25am to 3.20pm, Monday to Friday, although requests for flexibility will be considered.

With this role comes the option of pursuing a Level 3 Advanced Apprenticeship qualification, fully funded and supported by the school and Hampshire County Council.
